

Recent retirements at the Wichita Appraisal District have opened career opportunities for an appraiser trainee in both our residential and business personal property departments. Appraisers perform on-site inspections, research, mathematical and statistical analysis of assigned properties to determine market values for property tax purposes. We offer a competitive salary with an excellent benefit package. Degree preferred.

Email resumes to wcad@wadtx.com.

Wichita Appraisal District is an equal opportunity employer.